

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (Contracting party)

Eurowind collects and processes information about you if you are a contracting party in an agreement signed with and/or acquired by Eurowind in accordance with the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period	Recipients
As a rule, we only process regular personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, phone number, your address or e-mail address. It can also be fiscal or financial information such as account number. In certain cases, we may have to process information regarding your social security number in order to fulfill contractual and legal obligations.	In order to fulfill our contractual obligations towards you as long as you are a contracting party in an agreement signed with and/or acquired by Eurowind, in connection with the planning, erection and/or operation of wind turbines and/or PV parks. In order to comply with relevant legislation, and/or In order to keep your personal data in a period of time after the end of an agreement for the purpose of documentation.	The legal basis for Eurowind’s processing of your personal data is the agreement between you and Eurowind, which naturally implies the processing of your data, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation (hereinafter “GDPR”), article 6, letter b. Prior to entering into an agreement, the processing of your information is necessary for Eurowind to pursue a legitimate interest, for example, to clarify landowners for a potential wind turbine project, cf. GDPR, article 6, letter f. Eurowind processes your social security number, as follows by the legislation, cf. the Data Protection Act § 11, subsection 2, 1. Furthermore, Eurowind transmits your social security number, if a public authority requires to receive it, cf. the Data Protection Act § 11, subsection 2, 3.	We retain your personal data for as long as it is necessary for Eurowind to process them and this will always rely on a specific assessment of the data itself in compliance with relevant national or international legislation. Furthermore, legal periods of limitation will oblige Eurowind to keep and delete personal data.	As a rule, your personal data is not shared with anyone else. However, Eurowind uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Eurowind’s service may also entail that part of the personal data about you will be reported to authorities such as SKAT, the Danish Business Authority, land charges register etc., including via e.g. https://indberet.virk.dk/ or https://www.tinglysning.dk/, or to private operators such as insurance companies, lawyers, banks and accountants. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the GDPR.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (submitted an opposition or a hearing statement)

Eurowind collects and processes personal data about you if you submitted an opposition or a hearing statement regarding a project which involves and/or taken over by Eurowind. If so it will be accordance with the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period/rights	Recipients
As a rule, we only process regular personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, phone number or your address or e-mail address.	In order to fulfil a legitimate interest, e.g. to know and respond to any hearing statement and any oppositions which might have been submitted at the public hearing regarding a project of which Eurowind is involved in. The purpose of processing the data is to know the identity of the people who has submitted a hearing statement or opposition, among these to evaluate the hearing statements and oppositions and to identify the connection.	The legal basis for Eurowind’s processing of your personal data is due to Eurowind’s legitimate interest, ct. the General Data Protection Regulation article 6, 1 (f).	We retain your persona data for a period of up to 1 year after the expiry of the opportunity to appeal the project in question or as long the assessment from Eurowind is that there is a legitimate purpose of storing/processing the personal data. The assessment is an individual matter based on e.g. when the hearings regarding the project is ended, when any opportunity to appeal for the project in question has expired or when the project in question has been approved or finished.	As a rule, your personal data is not shared with external parties. Eurowind Energy uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind Energy, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the General Data Protection Regulation.

For further information, please read the Data Protection Policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (Investor)

Eurowind collects and processes personal data about you if you are an investor in a company managed entirely or partly by Eurowind in accordance with the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period	Recipients
As a rule, we only process regular personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, address, phone number or your e-mail address. It can also be fiscal or financial information such as account number and information regarding pledge and/or transport. In certain cases, we may have to process information regarding your social security number in order to fulfill contractual and legal obligations.	In order to fulfil our contractual obligations towards you as long as you are investor in a company managed by Eurowind, In order to comply with relevant legislation, and/or In order to keep your personal data in a period of time after the end of an agreement for the purpose of documentation.	The processing of your personal data is made according to the administration agreement with the company and the legal basis for the processing is Eurowind's legitimate interest in the management of the administration of the company, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation (hereinafter "GDPR"), article 6, letter f. This may involve processing your social security number, as follows by the legislation, cf. the Data Protection Act § 11, subsection 2, 1. Transmission of your social security number takes place in situations where it is a natural part of the normal operation of the company as well as for the purpose of identification, cf. the Data Protection Act § 11, subsection 2, 3.	We retain your personal data for as long as it is necessary for Eurowind to process them and this will always rely on a specific assessment of the data itself in compliance with relevant national or international legislation. Furthermore, legal periods of limitation will oblige Eurowind to keep and/or delete personal data.	As a rule, your personal data is not shared with anyone else. However, Eurowind uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Eurowind's service may also entail that some of your personal information will be reported to authorities such as SKAT, the Danish Business Authority, land charges register etc., including via e.g. https://indberet.virk.dk/ or https://www.tinglysning.dk, or to private operators such as insurance companies, lawyers, banks and accountants. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the GDPR.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (Recipient of newsletter)

Eurowind collects and processes personal data about you, if you are a recipient of our newsletter according to the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period	Recipients
As a rule, we only process regular personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, address, phone number or your e-mail address.	In order to send the requested newsletter.	The legal basis for Eurowind's processing of your personal data is your consent, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation article 6, section 1, letter a.	We retain your personal data for as long as you wish to receive our newsletter. The data will be deleted if you withdraw your consent by unsubscribing from the newsletter.	Eurowind Energy uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind Energy, and for which data process agreements have been signed.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (job seeker/applicant)

Eurowind Energy collects and processes information about you as a job seeker/applicant according to the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period/rights	Recipients
We process regular and confidential personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, phone number, your address and e-mail address. It can also be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Application/CV and other documentation from the recruitment - Other information that you have chosen to attach to your application - Retrieval of references (as per agreement) - Results from personality tests - Publicly available information on social media that you have posted about yourself Moreover, minutes of recruitment related meetings etc. may entail input and data related to your person.	In order to comply with rights and obligations in accordance with relevant legislation as well as assessing the application properly. The specific purposes can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contact information - Assessment of profile 	The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is Eurowind Energy's legitimate interest in having the advertised job filled, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation (hereinafter "GDPR"), article 6, 1, letter f.	When you subscribe to the job agent, you accept that we retain your name and e-mail address with the purpose of sending you personal e-mails with relevant, available positions. Your information will be saved for 6 months. By submitting your application, you consent to our processing of your personal data in the recruitment process. All applications are saved for up to 6 months after the recruitment process has finished. Your rights in relation to the collected include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Access to the information about you that we process - Object to our processing of the information, and if the objection is legitimate, the data processing shall stop - Have wrong or misleading information corrected, deleted or blocked, and in that connection require that others, who have received the information, are informed about this - Withdraw a consent, and - Complain to the Danish Data Protection Agency about the data processing of information about yourself. 	Eurowind Energy only uses the data shared to our processing in connection with the application process for the job that you are applying for, and personal data are processed confidentially. We only share your total application with the employees that are involved in the recruitment. As a rule, your personal data is not shared with external parties, unless there is a special need for it. Eurowind Energy uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind Energy, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the GDPR.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (Employee)

Eurowind Energy collects and processes information about you as an employee according to the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period/rights	Recipients
We process regular, confidential and sensitive personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, social security number, phone number, your address and e-mail address. It can also be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Start date, seniority, terms of employment, - Bank and pension information - Portrait picture - CV and other documentation, if any, from the recruitment - Fiscal information - Information on illness, maternity leave, other absence, etc. - End date, possible cause Moreover, minutes of staff development interviews and other employment related meetings etc. may entail input and data that relates to your person.	In order to comply with rights and obligations in accordance with employment contract as well as relevant legislation. The specific purposes can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SKAT - Statutory reports - Information on EWE's website (name and portrait picture) 	The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is the employment contract between Eurowind Energy and you, which naturally involves processing information about you, cf. the Data Protection Act § 12. The legal basis for the processing of your portrait picture is your consent in accordance with a separate declaration of consent, cf. the Data Protection Act § 12, subsection 3. The processing of confidential and sensitive personal data in connection with your employment may take place, if the processing is necessary in order to fulfil the obligations or rights of the data controller or the data subject as defined in other legislation or collective agreements, cf. the Data Protection Act § 12.	We retain your personal data throughout the employment and up to 5 years after the end of employment. We may retain information for longer than 5 years if necessary and required by special circumstances or requirements in compliance with relevant national or international legislation. Your rights in relation to the collected include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Access to the information about you that we process - Object to our processing of the information, and if the objection is legitimate, the data processing shall stop - Have wrong or misleading information corrected, deleted or blocked, and in that connection require that others, who have received the information, are informed about this - Withdraw a consent, and - Complain to the Danish Data Protection Agency about the data processing of information about yourself. As far as photo rights are concerned, special rules apply, as stated in your declaration of consent.	As a rule, your personal data is not shared with external parties, unless there is a special need for it. Internally, information is only shared as needed. Eurowind Energy uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind Energy, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Eurowind Energy shares information in connection with reports on salary, pension contribution, SKAT, Feriekonto, statutory statistics etc. and in connection with reimbursement of maternity pay and/or sick pay. Eurowind's service may also entail that part of the personal data about you will be reported to authorities such as SKAT and the Danish Business Authority, including https://indberet.virk.dk/, or to private operators such as pension funds, insurance companies, banks and accountants. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the General Data Protection Regulation.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.

Eurowind Energy – Overview of the processing of personal data (Board member)

Eurowind Energy collects and processes information about you as a Board member according to the following:

Categories of personal information	Purpose	Legal basis	Retention period/rights	Recipients
We process regular and confidential personal data about you. This can for instance be your name, social security number, phone number, your address and e-mail address. It can also be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Date of entry in the board - Account details - Registration number of the car - Portrait picture - Signature on reimbursement notes and minutes of meetings - CV, if any, from recruitment to the board - Fiscal information Moreover, minutes of meetings from board meetings etc. may entail input and data that relates to your person.	In order to comply with rights and obligations in accordance with relevant legislation. The specific purposes can be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Contact list of board members - Distribution of material from board meetings and seminars - Distribution of orientations regularly - Information on EWE's website (name and portrait picture) - In publications where the board figures - Settlement of fees, subsistence allowance as well as reimbursements, including information to SKAT - Documentation for the participation in meetings - Approval of minutes (signature) 	The legal basis for the processing of your personal data is the board member contract, which naturally involves processing information about you, cf. the General Data Protection Regulation (hereinafter "GDPR"), article 6, 1, letter b.	We retain your personal data throughout the duration of the board member contract and up to 5 years after termination. We may retain information for longer than 5 years if necessary and required by special circumstances or requirements in compliance with relevant national or international legislation. Your rights in relation to the collected include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Access to the information about you that we process - Object to our processing of the information, and if the objection is legitimate, the data processing shall stop - Have wrong or misleading information corrected, deleted or blocked, and in that connection require that others, who have received the information, are informed about this - Withdraw a consent, and - Complain to the Danish Data Protection Agency about the data processing of information about yourself. 	As a rule, your personal data is not shared with anyone else. Internally, information is only shared as needed. However, Eurowind Energy uses data processors that process personal data according to instructions from Eurowind Energy, and for which data process agreements have been signed. Eurowind Energy shares information in connection with reports on fees, SKAT, statutory statistics etc. Eurowind Energy's service may also entail that part of the personal data about you will be reported to authorities such as SKAT and the Danish Business Authority, the Central Business Register, or to private operators such as insurance companies, banks and accountants. Transmission of your information will always be handled with respect of the GDPR.

For further information, please read the Data protection policy for Eurowind Energy on the company website.